

An artistic creation by José Manuel Perigault Falcón.

He designed, built and painted this "Jarrón" in 1958 as a gift to my Mother (Clarita) when we were immigrating to the U.S. He painted the faces of the man and woman to resemble his brother, Gil, and sister-in-law, Clarita. We still conserve it, and this picture was taken on this trip to the U.S. It is 48 years old.
